

Mashantucket Pequot
Tribal Nation

April 18, 2013

On behalf of the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation, we would like to take this time to let the people of Boston know that we are thinking of them as they continue to deal with the Boston Marathon tragedy. We especially would like the victims and families of those directly affected to know that our thoughts and prayers, for healing and comfort, are with them during this difficult time.

It is during these moments that we find what the strength of a community is. Seeing the strength shown from not only the Boston community, but from communities around the world who are exhibiting concern, compassion and support to those in need gives us hope that together we can overcome even the most trying times.

We would also like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the self-sacrificing efforts of the first responders, volunteers and good Samaritans who assisted during the turmoil of this tragic event. It gives some security knowing that there are people who will give entirely of themselves, no matter the circumstance, to help those in need.

Our continued prayers go out for the city and citizens of Boston, Massachusetts.

Kutaputush. (Thank you)
